R U OK DAY AT THE CRC

On Wednesday the 7th of September the Wagin CRC had a sausage sizzle to raise funds and support the R U OK day organisation.

R U OK day is about having a conversation that could save a life. Asking the simple question "are you okay?" can spark an entire conversation with someone who may be having a bad day. The CRC still has some merchandise available. All proceeds go back to the organisation. Thankyou rto everyone who came in and had a chat and brought a sausage sizzle

FRIENDS OF THE WAGIN LIBRARY & GALLERY NEWS

Good news! The new Public Access computer purchased by Shire has been installed! We are just waiting for a technician to set up WiFi access and it will be ready to use. It will be the main topic at our next meeting on Thursday September 29 at 4:30 in the Library. We'd love to see lots of people come along to discuss how we can support the library staff and all library patrons in the use of this computer.

The Wagin Library & Gallery's 'My Two Blankets' colouring competition for any school-aged child closes soon, so come into the library to pick up your entry, or colour it in the library. Remember there is a book prize for the winner, as well as entry into the national competition.

The Friends of Wagin Library & Gallery Book Sale is to be held on Saturday September 24th in the library, between 10am and 12 noon. Support our local library and pick up some bargain reading. Most of the books for sale are only 50c each!

For patrons looking for books of a particular genre we have begun creating posters of author lists to assist you in your search. Check out the first one- Australian Rural Romance

Our purpose is to work with our wonderful Library staff to ensure the Library can be the best small country library we can have. If you would like to be part of this mission, please come to our meetings or contact Ivy Bicknell or me with ideas or requests.

To conclude, here's more of Ivy's Did You Know?

- Never for one minute trust a sleeping snake. They can see through their eyelids.
- A car travelling at 100mph would take more than a million years to reach the nearest star.
- The gastric juices of a snake can digest bones and teeth, not fur and hair.
- A newborn hedgehog starts to get its spines within twenty-four hours of birth.

LIBRARY LINES

Hello, Wagin Book Lovers!

Despite the date, wintery winds are still with us. It's a perfect opportunity to tuck up by the fire and read.

Mercy Street by Tess Evans.

"This is the story of a lonely old man – a widower, whose life gets changed when he meets a little girl. He gets mugged, and the little girl's mother comes to his rescue then takes him back home. Later they both turn up again because they've been evicted. This event changes all their lives. A brilliant story. You will cry."

A Bed of Scorpions by Judith Flanders

"As the title suggests, this book is about betrayal, greed and murder, but the passages of humour, wit and satire throughout make the story captivating, and it gives you an insight into the worlds of publishing and art."

Saving Willowbrook by Anna Jacobs. Large Print.

"An interesting novel from beginning to end, beginning with an unhappy marriage and a man that just wanted to make money out of his wife's inheritance. 'Willowbrook' had been in the family for centuries, and Ella was not prepared to have it sold. The story has sadness, love, fear and determination.

I have always really enjoyed Anna Jacobs' books, however this one had me riveted to keep reading – so much so, that when I came to the magnificent end it was an effort to pull myself back to reality. It's so great to think this wonderful lady lives here in Western Australia, and thank goodness the library has books in Large Print too."

A Dark and Twisted Tide by Sharon Bolton

"A young policewoman living on the Thames and working in the Marine Unit, Lacey knows the river can be a dangerous place, but she's always been lucky – until now. I really enjoyed this book. It's gripping and well written. The author keeps you guessing right up to the ending."

Heroes: Meeting Inspirational Australians by Tony Stephens

Each of the fifteen people in this book come from very different backgrounds - some have encountered great hardship, others lead by example and a firm belief in what is right - but they all have helped shape Australia into the diverse country it is. Very interesting. A wonderful book."

WAGIN PALLIATIVE CARE AND RESPITE

BY GLENYS BALL

Recently the Wagin Palliative Care and Respite committee held a Daffodil Day fundraiser. It was one of the coldest days of winter to be sitting on the street selling daffodils however over $500 raised will go towards finding a cure for cancer or aiding treatment for those afflicted.

Thank you to all those who contributed.

The Wagin Pal Care and Respite Committee have been busy for the last several years raising funds for a second respite room at the Wagin Hospital. The response from donors has been amazing and it is because of them that the second room is now completed.

The suite has kitchen and bathroom facilities, window treatments, several televisions, an electric fold back lounge in a relaxing area with casual comfortable chairs and coffee table, linen and crockery, cutlery, microwave, refrigerator. The area outside of the windows has been landscaped and reticulated by the Narrogin Nursery with native flora, including three grass trees donated by a local farmer. These will hopefully attract birds to use the central birdbath.

The Annual General Meeting will be held in October. The date will be advertised. It would be appreciated if a quorum could be met. Our Secretary (Wendy Abbott) Treasurer (Jan Clune) and Chairperson (Glenys Ball) are all happy to stay in their appointed roles so people do not have to worry about being asked to fill a position. Just come along and have a cuppa and take up the opportunity to hear what our plans are for the next twelve months.

Any inquiries contact Glenys Ball 0400 211 827.

A SATIRICAL LOOK AT THE JUNIOR/ADULTS FOOTBALL GAME

BY WARREN HOLT

The annual Parents versus Juniors (C and D Grade) game was held recently. Some very fit and talented young adults with some young and also talented children played against some seasoned old veterans. Of course, a resounding victory to the adults occurred. After the game a post mortem was held later that evening with much talk of the highlights from the day.

'Thomo' (John Thomson) had the ball on a string in the early two minutes of the game but unfortunately in an attempt to kick the air out of the ball 'Thomo' pulled his calf muscle, and was a sad and sorry sight as he slowly limped from the ground.

Steve Taylor was involved in an incident with his son Kennedy. Steve described the actions of Kennedy as filth and a dog act, taking his legs from him whilst on the run. It was later recalled that Steve in fact at the top speed of 7 kilometres per hour clipped his own heel, lost all control of his faculties, trampled Kennedy then sort of belly flopped or face planted the dirt. Kelvin Andrews looking and moving like Allen Jakovich burst through the pack, beat two opponents convincingly, only not to see the third. A very aggressive tackle left Kelvin with a damaged back and hamstring. He was not sighted for the rest of the game.

Clem Henry was the super sub, required for his run in the second half. In space out on the Peter Matera wing had only to run on to a ball to complete the passage of play. The best description of his damaging run was something akin to Forrest Gump. Unfortunately it wasn't the Forrest running all day, it was the straight legged Forrest running in shackles without the destructive breaking out. 'Big Wok' – dominating in the backline, displaying his high level rugby skills was heard to yell 'offside' as 'Rico' anticipated one of his moves and was caught holding the ball.

'Goose'. Very difficult man to roast as he could still play league footy now at the age of 52. He is the only man that can run backwards faster than the average man forwards. He displayed this talent numerous times humiliating a swarm of 10 year olds. Dean Morgan was renowned for his in and under work in the packs and clean skills. He will be looking forwards to next year's game to display this!

I can't leave 'yours truly' out. I will be looking for some new prescription glasses for next year's game. I might actually hang on to a few of those marks.

It was decided at the final stages of the game that the next goal wins the game. A sudden death. The final passage of play probably summed up the dominant display by the adults.

Holt soared high into the clouds and tapped the ball down BA's throat. BA slightly fumbled, regained his composure and bombed an accurate 12m kick to the centre half forward. Dane Tully swooped onto the ball, beat two opponents, and gave a no look handball over his shoulder.

This perfectly timed throw landed in the ever elusive Kim Davidson's hands. From 60m out 'Kimo' set sail for home only to see the ball come off the side of his boot. In what was an Act of God, the ball got on a bit of a dribble and started to make a bee line to the top of the square. Enter Craig Harley, he only had to gather the ball turn and kick the goal. However, he had other thoughts or his body movements didn't quite keep up with his brain. Craig couldn't gather the ball, instead it slipped through his hands and continued on its path through his legs where the ball remarkably dribbled through for a goal! If no one happened to see who kicked the ball, 'Kimo' reminded everybody that night in his articulate speech who did kick the winner!

Best on field went to the three ladies who participated in the game. Megan Henry, Jess Roberts and Jess Kapene. The sons Marshall Henry, Ethan, Cruize, Jahmol and Rico will be awarded Barbie Dolls at some stage.

To End: an apology to 'Hamo' for the unsavoury comments directed towards him for completely biased umpiring towards the adults.

RUBBISH

BY GLENYS BALL

On a delightful Spring Day recently, Wagin's Walking Women trekked up behind the Wagin Golf Club only to find people had taken advantage of the isolation and dumped numerous piles of domestic rubbish throughout the bush.

Dotted throughout the trees, wherever a trailer could be backed in unseen, thoughtless vandals threw out washing machines, toys, baby paraphernalia, documents, prams, clothing, you name it was abandoned in the bush.

There are hefty fines for this behaviour and the local Shire has been informed and will take the matters into hand. There is so much paper blowing throughout the bush, there would possibly be a name or two on a document.

One pair of youth trousers had a name tag attached. The washing machines in fact were discarded still with the clothes inside the machine and tangled around the wringers. Use the local tip please. The hours are clearly signposted. People and animals love and use the bush, so consider them before you spoil it.

On this day, the walking women consisted of Glenys Ball, Diane Davidson, Beryl Robinson, Marg Painter, Noelene Tuffin, Coral Davies and Sandra English. Anybody wanting to join our group on Tuesday morning would be welcome. Contact Glenys Ball 0400 211 827.

PS: A day after being alerted to this vandalism the Wagin Shire removed all of the rubbish and identified the culprit.

Along with daily home brushing/flossing routine, regular dental checks every 6 months can play an indispensable role in maintaining healthy teeth and gums. Indeed, twice-yearly visits to your dentist can minimise the occurrence of long-term dental problems and deal with immediate issues before they are allowed to develop further.

Regular check-ups can catch the early warning signs of decay or infection, while professional cleaning by a trained clinician helps to get rid of any hard to-remove plaque or tartar.

NOTICES

BEREAVEMENT

Malcolm, Raymond and Alex Edward, and Neil, Hayden and Charmaine Ferguson would like to thank all those who have expressed their condolences for the sudden passing of our much loved Wife, Partner, Mother, Mother in law and Granny, Yvonne Edward. She was a precious part of our family and we will miss her greatly. We were unprepared for the outpouring of love and support we have received from the Wagin Community and the Agricultural Industry across Australia and internationally. She, like us would have been surprised to learn how well she was thought of by so many. Thanks again for all you have done and continue to do to make Yvonne's passing easier for us.

WAGIN WINS GREAT SOUTHERN ZONE CHAMPIONSHIPS

BY SANDRA MOFFATT

The annual Great Southern Zone Shoot was held in Katanning earlier this month. Seven clay target shooting clubs make up the Great Southern Zone - Wandering/Boddington, Narrogin, Wagin, Katanning, Kojonup, Denmark and Albany. The annual shoot is the proverbial mixed bag with many different disciplines being contested to award the overall winning team and individuals. Each club is to submit a team of five shooters prior to competition and the individual shooters aggregate scores are used to find the winner. Team Wagin always starts the day in fine form and falters towards the end as the discipline of skeet is contested. Wagin shooters generally shoot skeet once a year and that it as the zone shoot. In true fashion, the Wagin team were leading heading into the skeet leg. Whilst some substandard scores were achieved from the Wagin team, there were equally poor scores shot in the final round from the Narrogin and Katanning teams. This resulted in a four target win for the mighty Wagin Gun Club. Team members Pas Carbone, Sam West, Tristan Moffatt, Chris Moffatt and Sandra Moffatt were rapt with the win as it was only the second time in the competition's fifty year history that the Wagin team has won it. Carbone was the star for the team shooting impressively well over the whole day. His superior efforts in B grade saw him come away with the Intermediate High Gun. Carbone and West also earned themselves a place in the Great Southern Zone team to contest at the State Trap Carnival later this month, with Tristan Moffatt as first reserve for the team.

Did you know..?

Did you know as a country patient you can attend some of your specialist medical appointments using videoconferencing?

Thanks to telehealth, country outpatients often now have access to specialists via telehealth – using videoconferencing to allow you to have face to face appointments with your doctors without having to visit Perth.

This saves you the time, money and the inconvenience of having to travel long distances for relatively short specialist visits.

The free telehealth service is available for a wide range of clinics including burns, wounds, pain management, speech pathology, gastroenterology, neurology, urology, paediatrics, mental health and many more.

After you've made an appointment, you simply visit your closest telehealth-enabled health service and the staff will connect you via videoconference to your specialist at their Perth hospital.

For more information about telehealth, ask your specialist, call one of the following numbers or visit the WA Country Health Service website at <http://www.wacountry.health.wa.gov.au/telehealth>.
